

United Nations Conference
on Trade and Development

Distr.
GENERAL

TD/RBP/CONF.3/3/Add.1
26 October 1990

Original:
ENGLISH/FRENCH/SPANISH

SECOND UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCE
TO REVIEW ALL ASPECTS OF THE SET OF MULTILATERALLY AGREED EQUITABLE PRINCIPLES AND RULES FOR THE CONTROL OF RESTRICTIVE BUSINESS PRACTICES

Geneva, 26 November 1990
Item 8 of the provisional agenda

REVIEW OF ALL ASPECTS OF THE
SET OF MULTILATERALLY AGREED EQUITABLE PRINCIPLES AND RULES
FOR THE CONTROL OF RESTRICTIVE BUSINESS PRACTICES

Proposals on transparency and consultation procedures
in the field of restrictive business practices

Report by the UNCTAD secretariat

Addendum

Different categories of publicly available information on restrictive business practices and addresses of authorities from which such information is available

Below are additional replies to the note of the Secretary-General of 31 May 1990. These should be added to the information contained in chapter I, part B, of TD/RBP/CONF.3/3.

AUSTRALIA

1. Responsibility for matters of domestic competition policy rests with the Attorney-General. Developments in this field may be ascertained by direct correspondence with the Attorney-General's Department. Annual Reports of the Department also contain some relevant information. Correspondence with the Department should be addressed to:

Senior Assistant Secretary
Competition Policy Branch
Attorney-General's Department
National Circuit
Barton - ACT 2600
Australia

2. Responsibility for enforcement of domestic competition law rests with the Trade Practices Commission. The Commission produces Annual Reports, bi-monthly Bulletins, various Issues Papers and press releases. Correspondence with the Commission should be addressed to :

Trade Practices Commission
P.O.Box No.19
Belconnen, ACT 2616
Australia.

CAMEROON

3. Information may be requested from the following address:

Société Générale de Surveillance,
Immeuble Flatters
Rue Flatters Bonanjo
Boîte postale 13.144
Douala, Cameroon.

Tel: 42 49 28; Fax: 42 89 66; Telex: 5989

4. In addition, the following organizations also deal with issues relating to restrictive business practices:

Présidence de la République
Direction générale des Grands Travaux de Cameroun
Boîte postale 6604
Yaoundé, Cameroon.

Tel: 22 18 03/22 20 24/22 26 43; Telex: 8952 KN; Fax: 22 13 00

Ministère du développement industriel et commercial
Yaoundé, Cameroon

Tel: 23 40 40

CAMEROUN (continued)

Chambre de Commerce, d'Industrie et des Mines
Boîte postale 4011
Douala, Cameroon

Tel: 42 28 88/42 36 90

Syndicat des Industriels du Cameroun
92, Boulevard de la liberté (ex Avenue Poincaré)
Boîte postale 673
Douala, Cameroon

Tel: 42 40 58; Telex: 5342 KN

CYPRUS

5. The address of the restrictive business practices authority of the Republic of Cyprus, responsible for the implementation of the relevant legislation, is as follows:

Ministry of Commerce and Industry
Nicosia
Republic of Cyprus.

FINLAND

6. Documents available include:

The Annual Report of the Office of Free Competition (published for the first time in 1990);

The Public Register on RBPs (in accordance with the Act on Restrictive Business Practices);

Investigations on RBPs, published by the Office of Free Competition;

"Kilpailupoliittisia tiedonantoja" (formal decisions made by the Office of Free Competition on distinct cases of RBPs) published quarterly;

7. The address of the restrictive business practices authority from where the information listed above can be obtained, is :

The Office of Free Competition (Kilpailuvirasto)
P.O.Box No.332
SF - 00531 Helsinki
Finland.

HONDURAS

8. There are three types of information available: annual reports; special bulletins and press releases.

9. The addresses of the authorities concerned are as follows:

Banco Central de Honduras
Tegucigalpa, Honduras;

Secretaría de Economía y Comercio
Tegucigalpa, Honduras;

Secretaría de Recursos Naturales
Tegucigalpa, Honduras;

Secretaría de Salud Pública y Asistencia Social Tegucigalpa, Honduras;

NORWAY

10. Norwegian price authorities issue the following publications concerning restrictive business practices:

Pristidende, a periodical issued 12 to 14 times a year, which contains amendments to the Price Act, new Provisions and Decisions by the Price Council or the Price Directorate. Available only in Norwegian.

Annual reports on the activities of the Price Directorate. Only available in Norwegian.

Annual report to the OECD/UNCTAD, available in English.

Various pamphlets on central prohibitions laid down in the Price Act and Provisions. Only available in Norwegian.

A book compiled once a year containing short summaries in Norwegian of every restrictive agreement and association liable to be reported to the Price Directorate, as well as information on firms which have been declared dominant.

The Price Act and the main Provisions are available in English.

11. The publications may be obtained on request from:

Prisdirektoratet,
Postbox 8132 Dep.,
0033 Oslo 1, Norway

Tel: 47 2 41 82 70; Fax: 47 2 42 73 36.

SRI LANKA

12. The restrictive business practices control authority in Sri Lanka is the Fair Trading Commission, established under Act No.1 of 1987. Individual cases reported and investigated by the Commission have been published in its Annual Reports of 1987, 1988 and 1989.

13. The address of the FTC is as follows:

The Fair Trading Commission
5th floor
Lakshman's Building,
321 Galle Road
Colombo 3, Sri Lanka.